

Division: School of Economics and Management

Academic programme: 09.04.02 Information Systems and Technologies, Intelligent Information Systems and Technologies in Business

Mode of study: full-time

Programme length: 2 years

Programme level: Master's degree

Language of instruction: Russian

Programme description: The programme is focused on studying cutting-edge intelligent information technologies and systems, the possibility of their integration and complex use to create a corporate information space that radically influences the conditions and activities of socio-economic systems.

Graduates can hold positions of: heads and specialists of IT departments of enterprises and organisations, software implementation and maintenance specialists, system analysts, heads of software development departments.

Main programme-specific classes:

- Analytical Subsystems of Corporate Information Systems
- Information Protection in Corporate Information Systems
- Data Integration in Corporate Information Systems
- Intelligent Solutions in Corporate Information Systems
- Interactive Data Visualization
- Modelling and Design of Intelligent Information Systems
- Technologies of Creation of Internet Applications

Programme manager: Olga S. Buslaeva, Candidate of Sciences (Engineering), Associate Professor of the Department of Digital Economics and Information Technologies