Division: School of Economics and Management

Academic programme: 38.04.01 Economics, Economic Justification of Engineering Solutions in Industry 4.0

Mode of study: part-time

Programme length: 2.5 years

Programme level: Master's degree

Language of instruction: Russian

Programme description: The Master's degree programme is aimed at training specialists and heads of manufacturing enterprises, able to choose and implement the most effective projects based on the assessment of economic consequences of engineering decisions.

Main programme-specific classes:

- Mathematical Support of Financial Decisions
- Financial and Economic Analysis
- Investment Corporate Activity and Evaluation of Its Effectiveness
- Company Finance
- Organizational Support of Implementation of Engineering Solutions
- Financial and Credit Organizations and Institutions
- Financial Management
- Business Valuation

Programme manager: Irina A. Soloveva, Doctor of Sciences (Economics), Professor